

Job description and person specification

- Job title: Senior Health Care Assistant
- Reports to: Registered Nurse
- Accountable to: Home Manager
- Location:

Main purpose and scope of the job

The Senior Health Care Assistant will assist the Registered Nurse and wider care team in the assessment and delivery of individualised, personalised care. The post holder will be expected to demonstrate a good range of communication skills, displaying respect, dignity and compassion and will be expected to lead a team of care colleagues and learners. The post holder will also be expected to role model the Exemplar Health Care values treating all colleagues, visitors and service users with courtesy. The Senior Health Care Assistant will contribute to ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements for quality and safety and meets CQC expectations.

About Exemplar Health Care

Exemplar Health Care is a leading provider of specialist nursing care for adults living with a range of complex and high acuity needs, arising from neuro-disability, brain injury, spinal injury, stroke, mental ill-health, physical disability, learning disability and/or autism and complex dementia.

Our community-based homes and OneCare services provide person-centred care and rehabilitation that focuses on maximising independence, building everyday living skills and empowering people to live as fulfilled lives as possible.

We support people on their journey from being in hospital or living in a secure setting to community and independent living, as well as offering longer term support for people living with degenerative or life-limiting illnesses.

Exemplar Health Care's mission

Our mission is to make every day better for the people we support and our colleagues.

Exemplar Health Care's vision

Our vision is that adults living with complex needs can access outstanding specialist care and support, in a community-based home that's close to their family and friends, and that's focused on their personal goals and outcomes.

Exemplar Health Care's values

Our values express what it's like to work at Exemplar Health Care and our colleagues should make these a part of everything that they do. We're looking for people whose personal values match our values of:

- Fun
- Integrity
- Responsive

- Success
- Teamwork

Key responsibilities

- Assist the registered nurse and the wider care team in the delivery of service user care and take responsibility to oversee care colleagues in the implementation and evaluation of that care, and ensure that documented plans of care are followed.
- You will be expected to undertake personal care of male and female service users as part of the role which could include washing, dressing, providing support with toileting and if required continence care, oral care, grooming, use of specific equipment to move a service user safely and supporting service users to eat and drink.
- To provide advice and education to service users, colleagues and learners within the home as required and within the scope of your role.
- To promote and maintain communication networks across and throughout the multidisciplinary team both within and external to the home.
- Be able to prioritise their own workload and of those working with them such as learners and Health Care Assistants.
- Assist the nurse to delegate what colleagues to what duties and ensure the smooth running of the unit.
- Recognise when service users or colleagues may need additional support or training and alert the nurse/management team to this.
- Carry out nursing care to the highest possible standard according to Exemplar Health Care Policies and Practice and Clinical Guidelines. This requires a thorough understanding of policies and guidance related to for example: infection control, hygiene and individualised needs and care requirements.
- To ensure that all equipment is maintained and any faults immediately reported.
- To ensure their own practice is compliant with regulatory requirements for quality and safety, and to work as an integral part of the colleagues' team to ensure the home meets CQC's fundamental standards.
- To be familiar with the Fundamental Standards set out in the Health and Social Care Act 2008, and CQC's expectations for a safe, effective, compassionate, high-quality care service.
- To line manage Health Care Assistants and contribute to handovers.

Health and safety

As an employee of Exemplar Health Care Health Care, the post holder has a duty under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, to: -

- Take reasonable care of the health and safety of themselves and all other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work.
- Co-operate with their employer to ensure compliance with Health and Safety legislation and the Health and Safety policies and procedures of the service, not intentionally or recklessly interfere with, or misuse, anything provided in the interests of health, safety, or welfare, in pursuance of any of the relevant statutory provisions.

- Recognise the personal right of the service user to positive risk taking in promoting their own recovery, working within identified guidelines.
- Have a general duty to take reasonable care for the health and safety of self and others who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work. All safety rules, regulations and codes of practice relating to the work area should be observed.
- Report all accidents, dangerous occurrences, incidents and hazards in line with company policy.
- Respect confidentiality relating to information gained through employment with the organisation and to ensure information is not disclosed to any unauthorised person/agency.

Safeguarding

Colleagues are required to take responsibility in all areas of work for safeguarding people at risk (both adults and children) from any form of abuse or neglect. When delivering care and support, colleagues are required to comply with the requirements of legislation relating to care in the UK, including the Care Act (2014) and Mental Capacity Act 2005, which incorporates the Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards (DoLS).

To comply with the Exemplar Health Care Safeguarding Children and Adults policies, procedures and protocols, all individual colleagues (paid or unpaid) have a duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults

This will require you to:

- Ensure you are familiar with and comply with local Child Protection Procedures and protocols for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people.
- Ensure you are familiar and comply with the Local Multi Agency Safeguarding Vulnerable Adults plans and procedures.
- Ensure you are familiar and comply with local protocols and systems for information sharing.
- Know the appropriate contact numbers and required reporting lines.
- Participate in required training and supervision.
- Comply with required professional boundaries and codes of conduct.

Exemplar Health Care is committed to safeguarding all children and vulnerable adults and expects all colleagues and volunteers to share this commitment.

Data protection

The post holder must at all times respect the confidentiality of information in line with the requirements of the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018. This includes, if required to do so, obtain, process and/or use information held on a computer in a fair and lawful way, to hold data only for the specified registered purposes and to use or disclose data only to authorised persons or organisations as instructed.

This job description may be subject to review and appropriate modification. The post holder may be required to undertake other relevant and appropriate duties as reasonably required.

General

All colleagues are required to undertake the following:

- Carry out other duties as will, from time to time, be directed
- To fully comply at all times with the company policies and procedures and to take responsibility for own actions/inactions
- Undertake appropriate training and development to ensure statutory compliance and maintain appropriate professional registration
- To share and model the company values and expected behaviours at all times
- Participate in PDR/appraisal and supervision processes within the statutory guidelines
- To participate in all employee engagement activities including team, departmental or other staff meetings as required and contribute to company staff survey

I confirm I have read and understand this Job Description.
